Sub: Extension of approval of affiliation of Chanakya Law College, Uttarakhand affiliated to your university which has deposited the inspection fee for renewal of approval of affiliation for the academic year 2011-2012.

Sir,

The Bar Council of India had considered the mater regarding grant of extension of approval of affiliation to the Centres of Legal Education which have deposited the requisite inspection fee towards inspection. Since the inspection of the above Centre of Legal Education could not be carried out due to unavoidable circumstances. After consideration, Council passed the following resolution in this regard :-

RESOLUTION NO. 20/2011

* RESOLVED that existing Centres of Legal Education which have applied for extension of approval of Bar Council of India for/ upto the year 2011-2012 and have deposited the requisite inspection fee be granted approval of affiliation for a limited period of one year for academic year 2011-2012. In the meanwhile during the said period the Bar Council of India in the light of the provisions of the Advocate Act, 1961 contained section 7(i) read with Section 7 ( m) along with the rules namely, the Bar Council of India Rules, Part IV namely Rules 16,17 and 18 shall complete step ( 1) and step ( 2) process of inspection before further approval of recognition is granted to the Centres of Legal Education subject to them applying again for extension of approval of affiliation for the academic year 2012-2013.

Step 1 is that the Council must be satisfied that the university has a conscious and well informed enrolling body, has meticulously observed processes of affiliation and would take adequate regulatory control in relation to the said college of law/ centre of legal education . Step namely 2 the inspection of the college as well as its infrastructural facilities, faculty, fund, other facilities etc. It is reiterated that the primary responsibility shall be upon the University.

However the above resolution shall not apply to the following :-

1. The new centres of legal education which have applied for approval of affiliation or recognition of Bar Council of India.
2. Those centres of legal education which were inspected after 22nd August 2010 despite moratorium. List enclosed herewith as Annexure A.
3. The application for new courses or section by Centres of Legal Education. To clarify it is stated that if an existing centre of legal education applies for additional section or new course then no automatic approval is deemed to be granted based on the above resolution.
4. Those Centres of Legal Education which has been declined approval by Bar Council of India for the year 2010-2011 but has been given liberty to apply again.

It is further made clear that the extension of approval of affiliation now granted is coterminous with the affiliation granted by the University."

Since the aforesaid law college has paid the inspection fee, college authority are allowed to take admission during the academic year 2011-2012 for imparting 5 year law course provided it has affiliation order for the academic year 2011-2012 of your university .

Yours sincerely
